(6) One Person company can get itself converted into a Private or Public company after increasing the minimum number of members and directors to two or minimum of seven members and three directors as the case may be, and by maintaining the minimum paid-up capital as per requirements of the Act for such class of company and by making due compliance of section 18 of the Act for conversion.

Undesirable names.

2.4. (1) For the purposes of clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 4, in determining whether a proposed name is identical with another, the differences on account of the following shall be disregarded:

- the words Private, Pvt, Pvt., (P), Limited, Ltd, Ltd., LLP, Limited Liability Partnership;
- the words appearing at the end of the names – company, and company, co., co, corporation, corp, corpn, corp.;
- the plural version of any of the words appearing in the name;
- the type and case of letters, spacing between letters and punctuation marks;
- joining words together or separating the words does not make a name distinguishable from a name that uses the similar, separated or joined words;
- the use of a different tense or number of the same word does not distinguish one name from another;
- Using different phonetic spellings or spelling variations does not distinguish one name from another. For example, P.Q. Industries limited is existing then P and Q Industries or Pee Que Industries or P n Q Industries or P & Q Industries will not be allowed. Similarly if a name contains numeric character like 3, resemblance shall be checked with 'Three' also;
- misspelled words, whether intentionally misspelled or not, do not conflict with the similar, properly spelled words;

- the addition of an internet related designation, such as .com, .net, .edu, .gov, .org, .in does not make a name distinguishable from another, even where (.) is written as 'dot';
- the addition of words like New, Modern, Nav, Shri, Sri, Shree, Sree, Om, Jai, Sai, The, etc. does not make a name distinguishable from an existing name. Similarly, if it is different from the name of the existing company only to the extent of adding the name of the place, the same shall not be allowed; Such names may be allowed only if no objection from the existing company by way of Board resolution is submitted;
- different combination of the same words does not make a name distinguishable from an existing name, e.g., if there is a company in existence by the name of "Builders and Contractors Limited", the name "Contractors and Builders Limited" will not be allowed unless it is change of name of existing company;_
- if the proposed name is the Hindi or English translation or transliteration of the name of an existing company or limited liability partnership in English or Hindi, as the case may be.

(2) For the purposes of sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 4:

(a) a name shall be considered undesirable if:-

- it attracts the provisions of section 3 of the Emblems and Names (Prevention and Improper Use) Act, 1950 (12 of 1950);
- it includes the name of a registered trade mark or a trade mark which is subject of an application for registration, unless the consent of the owner or applicant for registration, of the trade mark, as the case may be, has been obtained and produced by the promoters;
- it includes any word or words which are offensive to any section of the people;

(b) a name shall also generally be considered undesirable if:-

- the proposed name is identical with or too nearly resembles the name of a limited liability partnership;
- it is not in consonance with the principal objects of the company as set out in the memorandum of association:

Provided that every name need not be necessarily indicative of the objects of the company, but when there is some indication of objects in the name, then it shall be in conformity with the objects mentioned in the memorandum;

- the Company's main business is financing, leasing, chit fund, investments, securities or combination thereof, such name shall not be allowed unless the name is indicative of such related financial activities, viz., Chit Fund/ Investment/ Loan, etc.;
- it resembles closely the popular or abbreviated description of an existing company or limited liability partnership;
- the proposed name is identical with or too nearly resembles the name of a company or limited liability partnership incorporated outside India and reserved by such company or limited liability partnership with the Registrar:

Provided that if a foreign company is incorporating its subsidiary company in India, then the original name of the holding company as it is may be allowed with the addition of word India or name of any Indian state or city, if otherwise available;

- any part of the proposed name includes the words indicative of a separate type of business constitution or legal person or any connotation thereof e.g. co-operative, sehkari, trust, LLP, partnership, society, proprietor, HUF, firm, Inc., PLC, GmbH, SA, PTE, Sdn, AG etc.;

Explanation: Name including phrase 'Electoral Trust' may be allowed for Registration of companies to be formed under section 25 of the Companies Act, 1956 under the Electoral Trusts Scheme 2013 as notified by the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT); provided that name application is accompanied with an affidavit to the effect that the name to be obtained shall be only for the purpose of registration of companies under Electoral Trust Scheme as notified by the CBDT.

- the proposed name contains the words 'British India';
- the proposed name implies association or connection with embassy or consulate or a foreign government;
- the proposed name includes or implies association or connection with or patronage of a national hero or any person held in high esteem or important personages who occupied or are occupying important positions in Government;
- the proposed name is vague or an abbreviated name such as 'ABC limited' or '23K limited' or 'DJMO' Ltd: abbreviated name based on the name of the promoters will not be allowed. For example:- BMCD Limited representing first alphabet of the name of the promoter like Bharat, Mahesh, Chandan and David.

Provided that existing company may use its abbreviated name as part of the name for formation of a new company as subsidiary or joint venture or associate company but such joint venture or associated company shall not have an abbreviated name only e.g. Delhi Paper Mills Limited can get a joint venture or associated company as DPM Papers Limited and not as DPM Limited However the companies well known in their respective field by abbreviated names are allowed to change their names to abbreviation of their existing name after following the requirements of the Act;

- the proposed name is identical to the name of a company dissolved as a result of liquidation proceeding and a period of two years have not elapsed from the date of such dissolution (since the dissolution of the company could be declared void within the period aforesaid by an order of the Tribunal under section 356 of the Act). Further, if the proposed name is identical with the name of a company which is struck off in pursuance of action under section 248 of the Act, then the same shall not be allowed before the expiry of twenty years from the publication in the Official Gazette being so struck off (since the company can be restored anytime within such period by the Tribunal);
- it is identical with or too nearly resembles the name of a limited liability partnership in liquidation or the name of a limited liability partnership which is struck off up to a period of five years;
- the proposed name include words such as 'Insurance', 'Bank', 'Stock Exchange', 'Venture Capital', 'Asset Management', 'Nidhi', 'Mutual fund' etc., unless a declaration is submitted by the applicant that the requirements mandated by the respective regulator, such as IRDA, RBI, SEBI, MCA etc. have been complied with by the applicant;
- the proposed name includes the word "State", the same shall be allowed only in case the company is a government company.
- the proposed name is containing only the name of a continent, country, state, city such as Asia limited, Germany Limited, Haryana Limited, Mysore Limited;
- the name is only a general one, like Cotton Textile Mills Ltd. or Silk Manufacturing Ltd., and not Lakshmi Silk Manufacturing Co. Ltd;
- it is intended or likely to produce a misleading impression regarding the scope or scale of its activities which would be beyond the resources at its disposal:
- the proposed name includes name of any foreign country or any city in a foreign country, the same shall be allowed if the applicant produces any proof of significance of business relations with such foreign country like MOU with a company of such country .Provided further the name combining the name of a foreign country with the use of India like India Japan or Japan India shall be allowed if, there is a government to government participation or patronage. No company shall be incorporated using the name of an enemy country. (Enemy country means so declared by the Central Government from time to time).

(3) If any company has changed its activities which are not reflected in its name, it shall change its name in line with its activities within a period of six months from the change of activities after complying with all the provisions as applicable to change of name.

(4) In case the key word used in the name proposed is the name of a person other than the name(s) of the promoters or their close blood relatives, No objection from such other (s) shall be attached with the application for name. In case the name includes the name of relatives, the proof of relation shall be attached. It shall be mandatory to furnish the significance and proof thereof for use of coined words made out of the name of the promoters or their relatives.

(5) The applicant shall declare in affirmative or negative (to affirm or deny) whether they are using or have been using in the last 5 years , the name applied for incorporation of company or LLP in any other business constitution like Sole proprietor or Partnership or any other incorporated or unincorporated entity and if, yes details thereof and NOC from other partners and associates for use of such name by the proposed Company or LLP as the case may be and also a declaration as to whether such other business shall be taken over by the proposed company or LLP or not .

CHAPTER VIII

DECLARATION AND PAYMENT OF DIVIDEND

Declaration of dividend out of reserves.

8.1 For the purposes of second proviso to sub-section (1) of section 123, a company may declare dividend out of the accumulated profits earned by it in previous years and transferred by it to the reserves, in the event of inadequacy or absence of profits in any year, subject to the fulfillment of the following conditions :

- The rate of dividend declared shall not exceed the average of the rates at which dividend was declared by it in the three years immediately preceding that year;
- The total amount to be drawn from such accumulated profits shall not exceed an amount equal to one-tenth of the sum of its paid-up share capital and free reserves;
- The amount so drawn shall first be utilized to set off the losses incurred in the financial year before any dividend in respect of preference or equity shares is declared;
- The balance of reserves after such withdrawal shall not fall below fifteen per cent of its paid up share capital.

8.2 No company shall declare dividend unless the loss or depreciation, whichever is less, in previous years is set off against the profit of the company for the year for which dividend is declared or paid.

Statement of persons whose dividend is unpaid or unclaimed.

8.3 (1) For the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 124, where a company has transferred the amount of dividend remaining unpaid or unclaimed to Unpaid Dividend Account, it shall, within a period of ninety days of making such transfer, prepare and place on its website and on any other website approved by the Central Government in pdf format, a statement in Form No.8.1, in respect of such unpaid or unclaimed amount of dividend:

Provided that such a statement shall appear on the website in a prominent manner and shall be:

- (a) accessible free of charge; and
- (b) readable and made convenient for printing

Provided further that if such statement requires any particular version of software for accessing such statement, a facility to download the relevant version of the software shall be provided free of cost together with such statement, along with instructions for downloading such software and contact details of a responsible official of the company who can help to open, read and print the statement.

(2) Proper search facility shall, by name, be provided on the web-site to search the entries from the above stated statement.

(3) Such statements shall appear year-wise and, where dividend has been declared more than once in a financial year, for each declaration of dividend, on the website of the company or on any other website approved by the Central Government until the amount is transferred to the Fund established under sub-section (1) of section 125.

Statement to be furnished to the Fund.

8.4. (1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 124, any money transferred to the Unpaid Dividend Account by a company in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 124 which remains unpaid or unclaimed for a period of seven years from the date of such transfer and interest accrued, if any, thereon, shall be transferred to the Fund established under sub-section (1) of section 125.

(2) Any amount required to be credited by the company to the Fund under sub-rule (1), shall be remitted into the specified branches of State Bank of India or any other nationalized bank through which the amount can be credited to the Fund, within a period of thirty days of such amount becoming due to be credited to the Fund:

Provided that such amount shall be tendered by the company in such branches of State Bank of India or other nationalized bank along with a Challan (in triplicate) and the Bank shall return to the company two copies of the Challan duly stamped as an acknowledgement of having received the amount:

Provided further that one copy of such duly stamped Challan evidencing deposit of the amount into the Fund shall be filed by the company with the Authority constituted in pursuance of sub-section (5) of section 125. The company shall fill in the full particulars of the amount tendered including the head of Account to which it has been credited.

Provided also that the Central Government may permit remittance of the amount in electronic mode.

- The company shall, along with the copy of the Challan as required in second proviso to sub-rule (2), furnish a statement in Form No. 8.2 containing details of such transfer to the Authority duly certified by a company secretary in practice or a chartered accountant or cost accountant :

(4)(a) On receipt of this statement, the Authority shall enter the details of such receipt in a register maintained by it in respect of each company every year and reconcile the amount so remitted and collected, with the concerned designated bank on monthly basis.

(b) Each designated bank shall furnish an abstract of such receipts during the month to the Authority within seven days after the close of every month.

(c) The company shall keep a record consisting of name, last known address, amount, folio number/client ID, certificate number, beneficiary details etc. of the persons in respect of whom unpaid or unclaimed amount has remained unpaid or unclaimed for a period of seven years and has been transferred to the Fund, for a period of eight years from the date of such transfer to the said Fund and the Authority shall have the powers to inspect such records.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall be applicable mutatis mutandis in respect of the amounts to be credited to the Fund in pursuance of clauses (h) to (m) of sub-section (2) of section 125.

Manner of transfer of shares in respect of which unpaid or unclaimed dividend has been transferred under sub-section (6) of section 124

8.5(1) For the purposes of sub-section (6) of section 124, all shares in respect of which unpaid or unclaimed dividend has been transferred under sub-section (5) of section 124 shall also be transferred by the company in the name of the Fund established under sub-section (1) of section 125 by following the procedure as given in the following rules. In case shares are held in electronic mode in any depository and the beneficial owner has encashed any dividend warrant during the last seven years, such shares shall not be required to be transferred to Investor Education and Protection Fund even though some dividend warrants may not have been encashed.

(2) The shares shall be credited to an IEPF Suspense Account (name of the company) with one of the Depository Participants as may be notified by the Fund within a period of thirty days of such shares becoming due to be transferred to the Fund. For the purposes of effecting transfer of such shares, the Board shall authorise the company secretary or any other person to sign the necessary documents. The company shall follow the procedure as stated below:

- For the purposes of effecting the transfer where the shares are dealt with in a depository:
 - the company secretary or the person authorised by the Board shall sign on behalf of such shareholders, the delivery instruction slips of the depository participants where the shareholders had their accounts for transfer in favour of IEPF Suspense Account (name of the company).

- On receipt of the delivery instruction slips, the depository shall effect the transfer of shares in favour of the Fund in its records.
- For the purposes of effecting the transfer where the shares are held in physical form:
 - the company secretary or the person authorised by the Board shall make an application, on behalf of the concerned shareholders, to the company, for issue of duplicate share certificates.
 - on receipt of the application, a duplicate certificate for each such shareholder shall be issued and it shall be stated on the face of it and be recorded in the Register maintained for the purpose, that the duplicate certificate is “Issued in lieu of share certificate No..... for purpose of transfer to IEPF”. Further, the word “duplicate” shall be stamped or punched in bold letters across the face of the share certificate.
 - Particulars of every share certificate issued as above shall be entered forthwith in a Register of Renewed and Duplicate Share Certificates maintained in Form No. 4.3 pursuant to rule 4.3(3).
 - After issue of duplicate share certificates, the company secretary or the person authorised by the Board, shall sign the necessary securities transfer Form No. 4.7, pursuant to section 56(1) & rule 4.9(1), for transferring the shares in favour of the Fund.
 - On receipt of the duly filled transfer forms along with the duplicate share certificates, the Board or its committee shall approve the transfer and thereafter the transfer of shares shall be effected in favour of the Fund in the records of the company.

(3) The company/depository, as the case may be, shall preserve copies of the depository instruction slips, transfer deeds and duplicate certificates for its records.

(4) While effecting such transfer, the company shall send a statement to the Fund in form 8.3 containing details of such transfer duly certified by a company secretary in practice or a chartered accountant or a cost accountant.

(5) The voting rights on shares transferred to the Fund shall remain frozen until the rightful owner claims the shares.

(6) All benefits accruing on such shares e.g. bonus shares, split etc. shall also be credited to such IEPF suspense account (name of the company).

(7) The IEPF suspense account (name of the company) with depository participant, shall be maintained by the Fund, on behalf of the shareholders who are entitled for the shares and shares held in such account shall not be transferred or dealt with in any manner whatsoever except for the purposes of transferring the shares back to the claimant as and when he/she approaches the Fund. However in case the company is getting delisted IEPF shall surrender shares on behalf of the shareholders in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Delisting of Equity Shares Regulations), 2009 and the proceeds realized shall be credited to the account of the shareholder.

(8) Any further dividend received by IEPF on such shares shall be credited to respective accounts of the shareholders maintained by IEPF.

(9) As and when a claimant approaches the Fund, the Fund shall refer to the respective company for verification of the details of the claimant against the details of shares. After proper verification of the claim and identity of the claimant by the company, the Fund shall either credit the shares which are lying with depository participant in IEPF suspense account (name of the company) to the demat account of the claimant to the extent of the claimant's entitlement and pay the unpaid dividends or in case of the physical certificates, cancel the duplicate certificate and transfer the shares in favour of the claimant and pay the unpaid dividends .

(10) For the purposes of rule 8.9, the company shall inter alia verify the following documents of the claimants:

CHAPTER XII

MEETINGS OF BOARD AND ITS POWERS

Meetings of Board through video conferencing or other audio visual means.

12.1. For the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 173, a company shall comply with the following requirements and procedures, in addition to the procedures required for Board meetings in person, for convening and conducting Board meetings through video conferencing or other audio visual means:

(1) Every director of the company shall attend, at least one Board meeting in a financial year of the company, in person.

(2) The Chairperson of the meeting and company secretary, if any, shall take due and reasonable care:

(a) to safeguard the integrity of the meeting by ensuring sufficient security and identification procedures;

(b) to ensure the availability of proper video conferencing or other audio visual equipment/facilities for providing transmission of the communications for effective participation of the directors and other authorised participants at the Board meeting;

(c) to record the proceedings and prepare the minutes of the meeting;

(d) to store for safekeeping and marking the tape recording(s) and/or other electronic recording mechanism as part of the records of the company;

(e) to ensure that no person other than the concerned director or other authorised participants are attending or have access to the proceedings of the meeting through video conferencing mode or other audio visual means; and

(f) to ensure that participants attending the meeting through audio visual means are able to hear and/or see the other participants clearly during the course of the meeting

(3) (a) The notices of the meeting shall be sent to all the directors in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 173 of the Act.

(b) The notice of the meeting shall inform the directors regarding the option available to them to participate through video conferencing mode or other audio visual means, and shall provide all the necessary information to enable the directors to participate through video conferencing mode or other audio visual means.

(c) A director intending to participate through video conferencing mode or other audio visual means shall communicate his intention in writing to the Chairman and/or the company secretary of the company and shall also furnish details of how he wishes to avail the connectivity.

(d) If the director intends to participate through video conferencing mode or other audio visual means, he shall send the confirmation at least three days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting unless waived-off by the Chairperson. The company secretary shall keep the records of the request and details furnished by the director, which shall be noted and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(e) In the absence of any such intimation from the director, it shall be assumed that the director will attend the meeting in person.

(4) At the start of the meeting, a roll call shall be taken by the Chairperson when every director participating through video conferencing or other audio visual means shall state, for the record, the following:

(a) his name;

(b) the location from where he is participating;

(c) that he can completely and clearly see, hear and communicate with the other participants;

(d) that he has received the agenda and all the relevant material for the meeting;

and

(e) that no one other than the concerned director is attending or having access to the proceedings of the meeting at the location mentioned in (b) above.

(5) (a) After the roll call, the Chairperson or Secretary shall inform the Board about the names of persons other than the directors who are present for the said meeting at the request or with the permission of the Chairman and confirm that the quorum is present for conducting a valid meeting.

Explanation: It is clarified that a director participating in a meeting through video conferencing or other audio visual means shall be counted for the purpose of quorum, unless he is to be excluded for any item/s of business under any provisions of the Act or Rules.

(b) The roll call shall also be made at the conclusion of the meeting and at the re-commencement of the meeting after every break to confirm the presence of a quorum throughout the meeting.

(6) With respect to every meeting conducted through video conferencing or other audio visual means authorised under these rules, the scheduled venue of the meeting as set forth in the notice convening the meeting shall be deemed to be the place of the said meeting and all recordings of the proceedings at the meeting shall be deemed to be made at such place. The statutory registers which are required to be placed in the Board meeting as per the provisions of the Act shall be placed at the scheduled venue of the meeting. Where such registers are required to be signed by the directors, the same shall be deemed to have been signed by the directors participating through electronic mode if they have given their consent to this effect and it is so recorded in the minutes of the meeting. .

(7) (a) Every participant shall identify himself for the record before speaking on any item of business on the agenda.

(b) If the director fails to identify himself, the Chairperson or company secretary shall briefly state the identity of the speaker. If the person speaking is not physically present and the secretary is not certain of the identity of the speaker, the Secretary must inquire to elicit a confirmation or correction.

(c) If a statement of a director in the meeting through video conferencing or other audio visual means is interrupted or garbled, the Chairperson or company secretary shall request for a repeat or reiteration by the director.

1. If a motion is objected to and there is a need to put it to vote, the Chairperson shall call the roll and note the vote of each director who shall identify himself while casting his vote.

(9) From the commencement of the meeting until the conclusion of such meeting, no person other than the Chairperson, directors, Secretary and any other person whose presence is required pursuant to a legal provision shall be allowed access to the place where any director is attending the meeting either physically or through video conferencing or other audio visual means.

(10) (a) At the end of the meeting, the Chairperson of the meeting shall announce the summary of the decisions taken in that meeting in respect of each item of business transacted at the meeting and the names of the directors who have assented to or dissented from those decisions. The video recording of this part of the meeting shall form part of the secretarial records and be preserved by the company.

(b) The minutes shall disclose the particulars of the directors who attended the meeting through video conferencing or other audio visual means.

(11) (a) The draft minutes of the meeting shall be circulated among all the directors within seven days of the meeting either in writing or in electronic mode as may be decided by the Board.

(b) Every director who attended the meeting, whether personally or through video conferencing or other audio visual means, shall confirm or give his comments, about the accuracy of recording of the proceedings of that particular meeting in the draft minutes, within seven days after receipt of the draft minutes failing which his approval shall be presumed.

(c) Thereafter, the minutes shall be entered in the minute book as prescribed under section 118 of the Act.

Explanation- For the purposes of this rule, 'video conferencing or other audio visual means' means audio-visual electronic communication facility employed which enables all the persons participating in a meeting to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary and to participate effectively in the meeting.

Issue of Indian Depository Receipts (IDRs).

22.10 (1) For the purposes of section 390, no company incorporated or to be incorporated outside India, whether the company has or has not established, or will or will not establish, any place of business in India (hereinafter in this rule called 'issuing company') shall make an issue of Indian Depository Receipts (IDRs) unless such company complies with the conditions mentioned under this rule, in addition to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2009 and any directions issued by the Reserve Bank of India.

Explanation- For the purposes of this rule, 'Indian Depository Receipt' (hereinafter referred to as 'IDR') means any instrument in the form of a depository receipt created by a Domestic Depository in India and authorized by a company incorporated outside India making an issue of such depository receipts.

(2) The issuing company shall not issue IDRs unless-

(a) its pre-issue paid-up capital and free reserves are at least US$ 50 million and it has a minimum average market capitalization (during the last 3 years) in its parent country of at least US$ 100 million

(b) it has been continuously trading on a stock exchange in its parent or home country (the country of incorporation of such company) for at least three immediately preceding years;

(c) it has a track record of distributable profits in terms of section 123 of the Act, for at least three out of immediately preceding five years;

(d) It fulfills such other eligibility criteria as may be laid down by Securities and Exchange Board from time to time in this behalf.

(3) The issuing company shall follow the following procedure for making an issue of IDRs:

(a) The issuing company shall, where required, obtain the necessary approvals or exemptions from the appropriate authorities from the country of its incorporation under the relevant laws relating to issue of capital and/ or IDRs.

(b) Issuing company shall obtain prior written approval from Securities and Exchange Board on an application made in this behalf for issue of IDRs along with the issue size.

(c) An application under clause (b) shall be made to the Securities and Exchange Board (along with draft prospectus) at least 90 days prior to the opening date of the IDRs issue, in such form, along with such fee and furnishing such information as may be specified by Securities and Exchange Board from time to time:

Provided that the issuing company shall also file with Securities and Exchange Board, through a Merchant Banker, a due diligence report along with the application under clause (b) in the form specified by Securities and Exchange Board.

(d) Securities and Exchange Board may, within 30 days of receipt of an application under clause (c), call for such further information, and explanations, as it may deem necessary, for disposal of such application and shall dispose the application within 30 days of receipt of further information or explanation:

Provided that if within 60 days from the date of submission of application or draft prospectus, Securities and Exchange Board specifies any changes to be made in the draft prospectus, the prospectus shall not be filed with the Securities and Exchange Board or Registrar of Companies unless such changes have been incorporated therein.

(e) The Issuing company shall on approval being granted by Securities and Exchange Board to an application under clause (b), pay to Securities and Exchange Board an issue fee as may be prescribed from time to time by Securities and Exchange Board.

(f) The Issuing company shall file a prospectus, certified by two authorized signatories of the issuing company, one of whom shall be a whole-time director and other the Chief Financial Officer, stating the particulars of the resolution of the Board by which it was approved with the SEBI and Registrar of Companies, New Delhi before such issue:

Provided that at the time of filing of said prospectus with the Registrar of Companies, New Delhi, a copy of approval granted by Securities and Exchange Board and the statement of fees paid by the Issuing Company to Securities and Exchange Board shall also be attached.

(g) The prospectus to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Board and Registrar of Companies, New Delhi shall contain the particulars as prescribed in sub-rule (9) and shall be signed by all the whole-time directors of the issuing company, and the Chief Financial Officer.

(h) The issuing company shall appoint an overseas custodian bank, a Domestic Depository and a Merchant Banker for the purpose of issue of IDRs.

(i) The issuing company may appoint underwriters registered with Securities and Exchange Board to underwrite the issue of IDRs.

(j) The issuing company shall deliver the underlying equity shares or cause them to be delivered to an Overseas Custodian Bank and the said bank shall authorize the domestic depository to issue IDRs.

(k) The issuing company shall obtain in-principle listing permission from one or more stock exchanges having nationwide trading terminals in India.

Explanation- For the purposes of this rule,

(i) 'Domestic Depository' means custodian of securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Board and authorized by the issuing company to issue IDRs.

5. a certified copy of the certificate of incorporation of the issuing company in the country in which it is incorporated;
6. copies of the agreements entered into between the issuing company, the overseas custodian bank, the Domestic Depository, which shall inter alia specify the rights to be passed on to the IDR holders;
7. if any document or any portion thereof required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Board/ Registrar of Companies is not in English language, a translation of that document or portion thereof in English, certified by a key managerial personnel of the company to be correct and attested by an authorized officer of the Embassy or Consulate of that country in India, shall be attached to each copy of the document.

5 (a) No application form for the securities of the issuing company shall be issued unless the form is accompanied by a memorandum containing the salient features of prospectus in the specified form.

(b) An application form can be issued without the memorandum as specified in clause (a) above, if it is issued in connection with an invitation to enter into an underwriting agreement with respect to the IDRs.

(c) The prospectus for subscription of IDRs of the Issuing company which includes a statement purporting to be made by an expert shall not be circulated, issued or distributed in India or abroad unless a statement that the expert has given his written consent to the issue thereof and has not withdrawn such consent before the delivery of a copy of the prospectus to the Securities and Exchange Board and Registrar of Companies, New Delhi, appears on the prospectus.

(d) The provisions of the Act shall apply for all liabilities for mis-statements in prospectus or punishment for fraudulently inducing persons to invest money in IDRs.

(e) The person(s) responsible for issue of the prospectus shall not incur any liability by reason of any non-compliance with or contravention of any provision of this rule, if-

1. as regards any matter not disclosed, he proves that he had no knowledge thereof; or
2. the contravention arose in respect of such matters which in the opinion of the Central Government and / or Securities and Exchange Board were not material.

(6) (a) A holder of IDRs may transfer the IDRs or may ask the Domestic Depository to redeem these IDRs, subject to the provisions of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 and other laws for the time being in force.

(b) In case of redemption, Domestic Depository shall request the Overseas Custodian Bank to get the corresponding underlying equity shares released in favour of the holder of IDRs for being sold directly on behalf of holder of IDRs, or being transferred in the books of Issuing company in the name of holder of IDRs and a copy of such request shall be sent to the issuing company for information.

(c) A holder of IDRs may, at any time, nominate a person to whom his IDRs shall vest in the event of his death and Form 22.9 annexed to these rules may be used for this purpose.

(7) (a) The repatriation of the proceeds of issue of IDRs shall be subject to laws for the time being in force relating to export of foreign exchange.

(b) The number of underlying equity shares offered in a financial year through IDR offerings shall not exceed 25% of the post issue number of equity shares of the company.

(c) Notwithstanding the denomination of securities of an Issuing company, the IDRs issued by it shall be denominated in Indian Rupees.

(d) The IDRs issued under this Rule shall be listed on the recognized Stock Exchange(s) in India as specified in clause (k) of sub-rule (3) and such IDRs may be purchased, possessed and freely transferred by a person resident in India as defined in section 2(v) of Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999, subject to the provisions of the said Act:

Provided that the IDRs issued by an Issuing company may be purchased, possessed and transferred by a person other than a person resident in India if such Issuing company obtains specific approval from Reserve Bank of India in this regard or complies with any policy or guidelines that may be issued by Reserve Bank of India on the subject matter.

(e) Every issuing company shall comply with such continuous disclosure requirements as may be specified by Securities and Exchange Board in this regard.

(f) On the receipt of dividend or other corporate action on the IDRs as specified in the agreements between the Issuing company and the Domestic Depository, the Domestic Depository shall distribute them to the IDR holders in proportion to their holdings of IDRs.

(8) If an Issuing company or any other person contravenes any provision of this rule for which no punishment is provided in the Act, the Issuing company shall be punishable with the fine which may extend to twice the amount of the IDR issue and where the contravention is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to five thousand rupees for every day during which the contravention continues and every officer of the company who is in default or such other person shall be punishable with the fine which may extend to one lakh rupees and where the contravention is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day, during which such contravention continues.

Chapter XXVI

Nidhis

In exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (1) of section 406 read with sub-sections (1) and (2) of 469 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:-

1. These Rules may be called Nidhi Rules, 2013.
2. They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

3. These rules shall apply to:

(a) Every company which had been declared as a Nidhi or Mutual Benefit Society under sub-section (1) of section 620A of the Companies Act, 1956.

(b) Every company functioning on the lines of a Nidhi company or Mutual Benefit Society but has either not applied for or has applied for and is awaiting notification to be a Nidhi or Mutual Benefit Society under sub-section (1) of section 620A of the Companies Act, 1956.

(c) Every company incorporated as a Nidhi pursuant to the provisions of section 406 of the Act (hereinafter referred to as Nidhi).

4. In these rules:-

(i) "Act" means the Companies Act, 2013.

(ii) "Doubtful Asset" means a borrowal account which has remained a non-performing asset for more than two years but less than three years.

(iii) "financial year" means financial year as defined in sub-section (41) of section 2 of the Act.

(iv) "Loss Asset" means a borrowal account which has remained a non-performing asset for more than three years or where in the opinion of the Board, a shortfall in the recovery of the loan account is expected because the documents executed may become invalid if subjected to legal process or for any other reason.

(v) "Member" means a member as defined in sub-section (55) of section 2 of the Act.

(vi) "Net Owned Funds" means the aggregate of paid up equity capital and free reserves as reduced by accumulated losses and intangible assets appearing in the last audited balance sheet:

Provided that:

(a) A reserve shall be considered as a "free reserve" if it is available for distribution as dividend.

(b) The amount representing the proceeds of issue of preference shares shall not be included for calculating Net Owned Funds.

(vii) “Non-Performing Asset” means a borrowal account in respect of which interest income and/or instalment of loan towards repayment of principal amount has remained unrealised for 12 months.

(viii) “Standard Asset” means the asset in respect of which no default in repayment of principal or payment of interest has occurred or is perceived and which has not shown signs of any problem relating to repayment of principal sum or interest nor does it carry more than normal risk attached to the business.

(ix) “Sub-Standard Asset” means a borrowal account which is a non performing asset:

Provided that reschedulement or renegotiation or rephasing of the loan instalment or interest payment would not change the classification of an asset unless the borrowal account has satisfactorily performed for at least twelve months after such reschedulement or renegotiation or rephasing.

5. Incorporation and incidental matters

1. For the purposes of sub-section (71) of section 2 of the Act, a Nidhi to be incorporated under the Act shall be a public company and must have a minimum paid up equity share capital of ten lakh rupees.
2. On and after the commencement of the Act, no Nidhi shall issue preference shares. If preference shares had been issued by a Nidhi before the commencement of this Act, such preference shares shall be redeemed in accordance with the terms of issue of such shares.
3. No Nidhi shall have any object in its Memorandum of Association other than the object of cultivating the habit of thrift and savings amongst its members, receiving deposits from, and lending to, its members only, for their mutual benefit.
4. Every Company incorporated as a “Nidhi” shall have the last words ‘Nidhi Limited’ as part of its name.
5. In respect of companies covered under clauses (a) and (b) of rule 3 formed before the commencement of this Act, they shall, within a period of two years from the date of commencement of these rules, change their name in accordance with sub-rule (iv) above and the provisions of the Act.

6. (i) Every Nidhi shall, within a period of one year from the commencement of these rules, ensure that it has:

(a) Not less than two hundred members.

(b) Net Owned Funds of ten lakh rupees or more.

(c) Unencumbered Term Deposits of not less than ten per cent. of the outstanding deposits as specified in rule 15.

(d) Ratio of Net Owned Funds to Deposits of not more than 1:20.

(ii) Within 90 days from the close of the first financial year after its incorporation and where applicable, the second financial year, the Nidhi shall file a Return of statutory compliances in Form No. 26.1 along with such fee as provided in Annexure 'B' with the Registrar duly certified by a company secretary in practice or chartered accountant or cost accountant.

(iii) If a Nidhi is not in compliance with clauses (a) or (d) of sub-rule (i) above, it shall within 30 days from the close of the first financial year, apply to the Regional Director in Form No. 26.2 along with fee specified in Annexure 'B' for extension of time and the Regional Director may consider the application and pass orders within 30 days of receipt of the application.

(iv) If the failure to comply with sub-rule (i) of this Rule extends beyond the second financial year, the Nidhi shall not accept any further deposits from the commencement of the second financial year until clauses (a) and (d) of sub-rule (i) of this rule are complied with, besides being liable for penal consequences as provided in the Act.

7. General restrictions/prohibitions

No Nidhi shall-

(iii) open any current account with its members;

(iv) acquire another company by purchase of securities or control the composition of the Board of directors of any other company in any manner whatsoever or enter into any arrangement for the change of its management, unless it has passed a special resolution in its general meeting and also obtained the previous approval of the Central Government.

Explanation: For the purposes of this sub-rule, “control” means control as defined in sub-section (27) of section 2 of the Act and “Central Government” means the Regional Director having jurisdiction over the Nidhi.

(v) carry on any business other than the business of borrowing or lending in its own name.

Provided that Nidhis which have adhered to all the provisions of these rules may provide locker facilities on rent to its members subject to the rental income from such facilities not exceeding 20% of the gross income of the Nidhi at any point of time during a financial year.

(vi) accept deposits from or lend to any person, other than its members.

(vii) pledge any of the assets lodged by its members as security.

(viii) take deposits from or lend money to any body corporate.

(ix) enter into any partnership arrangement in its borrowing or lending activities.

(x) issue or cause to be issued any advertisement in any form for soliciting deposit.

Provided that private circulation of the details of fixed deposit schemes among the members of the Nidhi carrying the words “for private circulation to members only” shall not be considered to be an advertisement for soliciting deposits.

(xi) pay any brokerage or incentive for mobilizing deposits from members or for deployment of funds or for granting loans.

8. Share capital and allotment:

1. Every Nidhi shall issue equity shares of the nominal value of not less than ten rupees each.
2. No service charge shall be levied for issue of shares.
3. A Nidhi shall not make any preferential allotment of shares to any person(s) but may issue further shares and the unsubscribed portion of the issue can be apportioned by the Board of directors in terms of section 62 of the Act.
4. Every Nidhi shall allot to each deposit holder at least a minimum of ten equity shares or shares equivalent to one hundred rupees:

Provided that the account holders of savings account and recurring deposit only may hold at least one equity share of rupees ten.

20. Auditor:

(i) No person or firm appointed as Auditor of the Nidhi for a continuous period of five years shall be re-appointed as auditor.

(ii) For the purposes of the aforesaid sub-rule, no partner of the firm or any associate of the same firm either in that capacity or in any other individual capacity shall be eligible for reappointment.

21. Prudential norms:

(1). Every Nidhi shall adhere to the prudential norms for revenue recognition and classification of assets in respect of mortgage loans or jewel loans as contained hereunder.

(2). Income including interest or any other charges on non-performing assets shall be recognised only when it is actually realised. Any such income recognised before the asset became non-performing and which remains unrealised in a year shall be reversed in the profit and loss account of the immediately succeeding year.

(3). (a) In respect of Mortgage Loans, the classification of assets and the provisioning required shall be as under:

(b) The estimated realisable value of the collateral security to which a Nidhi has valid recourse may be reduced from the aggregate outstanding amount, if the proceedings for the sale of the mortgaged property have been initiated in a court of law within the previous two years of the interest, income or instalment remaining unrealised.

NATURE OF ASSET	PROVISION REQUIRED
Standard Asset	No provision
Sub-standard Asset	10% of the aggregate outstanding amount
Doubtful Asset	25% of the aggregate outstanding amount
Loss Asset	100% of the aggregate outstanding amount

(4). Time limit for compliance

In case of companies which were incorporated on or before 26-07-2001, such companies shall make provisions in respect of loans disbursed and outstanding as on 31-03-2002 for income reversal and non-performing assets as per table given below:

For the year ended	Extent of provision
31-03-2014	Un-provided balance on equal basis over the three years as specified in the preceding column.
31-03-2015
31-03-2016

(5). A Nidhi may, if it so desires, make provision exceeding the percentage specified in the preceding sub-rule.

(6).(a) The Notes on the financial statements of a year should clearly disclose:

(i) The total amount of provisions, if any, to be made on account of income reversal and non-performing assets remaining unrealised;

(ii) The cumulative amount provided till the previous year;

(iii) The amount provided in the current year; and

(iv) The balance amount to be provided.

(b) Such disclosure shall continue to be made until the entire amount to be provided has been provided for.

(7) In respect of loans against gold or Jewellery:

(a) The aggregate amount of loan outstanding against the security of gold or jewellery shall either be recovered or renewed within three months from the due date of repayment.

(b) If the loan is not recovered or renewed and the security is not sold within the aforesaid period of three months, the company should make provision in the current year's financial statements to the extent of unrealised amount or the aggregate outstanding amount of loan including interest as applicable.

(c) No income shall be recognised on such loans outstanding after the expiry of the three months period specified in (a) above or sale of gold or jewellery, whichever is earlier.

22. Every company covered under rule 3 shall file half yearly return with the Registrar in Form No. 26.3 along with such fee as provided in Annexure 'B' within 30 days from the conclusion of each half year duly certified by a Company Secretary in practice/Chartered Accountant/Cost Accountant without filing fees.

23. Auditor's Certificate

The Auditor of the company shall furnish a certificate every year to the effect that the company has complied with all the provisions contained in the Rules and such certificate shall be annexed to the Audit Report and in case of non-compliance, he shall specifically state the rules which have not been complied with.

24. Power to enforce compliance

(i) For the purposes of enforcing compliance with the Rules prescribed under this Chapter, the Registrar of Companies may call for such information or returns from the Nidhi as he deems necessary and may engage the services of chartered accountants, company secretaries in practice, cost accountants, or any firm thereof from time to time for assisting him in the discharge of his duties.

(ii) In respect of any Nidhi which has violated these rules or has failed to function in terms of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the concerned Regional Director may appoint a Special Officer to take over the management of the Nidhi and such Special Officer shall function as per the guidelines given by such Regional Director.

Provided that an opportunity of being heard shall be given to the concerned Nidhi by the Regional Director before appointing any Special Officer.

25. Penalty for non-compliance

If a company falling under rule 3 contravenes any of the provisions of the rules prescribed herein, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be punishable in the manner provided in section 450 of the Act.

CHAPTER -XXIX MISCELLANEOUS Adjudication of penalties.

29.1 (1) For the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 454, the Central Government may, by an order published in the Official Gazette, appoint any of its officers, not below the rank of Registrar, as adjudicating officers for adjudging penalty under the provisions of the Act.

(2) Before adjudging penalty, the adjudicating officer shall issue a written notice to the company and every other person alleged to have made the non-compliance or default in question, to show cause, within such period as may be specified in the notice (not being less than fourteen days from the date of service thereon), why the inquiry should not be held against him.

Provided that every notice issued under this clause, shall clearly indicate the nature of non compliance or default alleged to have been committed or made by such company and/or person, as the case may be. Provided further that the adjudicating officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period referred to above by a further period not exceeding fourteen days if the company or person (as applicable) satisfies the said officer that it has sufficient cause for not responding to the notice within the stipulated period.

(3) If, after considering the cause, if any, shown by such company and/or person, the adjudicating officer is of the opinion that an inquiry should be held, he shall issue a notice fixing a date for the appearance of such company and/or person whether personally or through his authorised representative.

(4) On the date fixed for hearing, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person(s) concerned, the adjudicating officer may, subject to reasons to be recorded in writing, pass any order as he thinks fit including an order for adjournment of the hearing to a future date.

(5) Every order passed under sub-rule (4) shall be dated and signed by the adjudicating officer.

(6) The Adjudicating Officer shall send a copy of the order passed by it to the concerned company and/ or officer who is in default and the Central Government.

(7) While holding an inquiry, the adjudicating officer shall have the following powers:

(a) to summon and enforce the attendance of any person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case;

(b) to order for evidence or to produce any document, which in the opinion of the adjudicating officer, may be useful for or relevant to the subject matter of the inquiry.

(8) While adjudging quantum of penalty, the adjudicating officer shall have due regard to the following factors, namely:

1. the amount of disproportionate gain or unfair advantage, wherever quantifiable, made as a result of the default;
2. the amount of loss caused to an investor or group of investors or creditors as a result of the default;
3. the repetitive nature of the default.

(9) All sums realised by way of penalties under the Act shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India.

(10) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, Indian Evidence Act, 1872 and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 shall not be applicable to such adjudication proceedings.

Appeal against the order of adjudicating officer.

29.2. (1) For the purposes of sub-section (6) of section 454, every appeal against the order of the adjudicating officer passed under sub-section (3) of section 454 shall be filed in writing with the Regional Director having jurisdiction in the matter within sixty days from the date of receipt of the order of adjudicating officer by the aggrieved party, in Form No. 29.1 setting forth the grounds of appeal and shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the order against which the appeal is sought:

Provided that where the party is represented by an authorised representative, a copy of such authorisation in favour of the representative and the written consent thereto by such authorised representative shall also be appended to the appeal: Provided further that an appeal in Form No. 29.1 shall not seek relief(s) therein against more than one order unless the reliefs prayed for are consequential.

(2) Every appeal filed under this rule shall be accompanied by such fee as provided in Annexure C.

29.3. (1) On the receipt of an appeal, office of the Regional Director shall endorse the date on such appeal and shall sign such endorsement.

(2) If, on scrutiny, the appeal is found to be in order, it shall be duly registered and given a serial number:

Provided that where the appeal is found to be defective, the Regional Director may allow the appellant such time, not being less than fourteen days following the date of receipt of intimation by the appellant from the Regional Director about the nature of the defects, to rectify the defects and if the appellant fails to rectify such defects within the time period allowed as above, the Regional Director may by order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, decline to register such appeal and communicate such refusal to the appellant within seven days thereof.

Provided further that the Regional Director may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period referred to in the first proviso above by a further period of fourteen days if an appellant satisfies the Regional Director that the appellant had sufficient cause for not rectifying the defects within the period of fourteen days referred in the first proviso above.

29.4. (1) On the admission of the appeal, the Regional Director shall serve a copy of appeal upon the adjudicating officer against whose order the appeal is sought along-with a notice requiring such adjudicating officer to file his reply thereto within such period, not exceeding twenty-one days, as may be stipulated by the Regional Director in the said notice.

Provided that the Regional Director may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period referred to in sub-rule (1) above for a further period of twenty-one days, if the adjudicating officer satisfies the Regional Director that he had sufficient cause for not being able to file his reply to the appeal within the above-said period of twenty-one days.

(2) On the receipt of any reply, application or written representation filed by the adjudicating officer, the Regional Director shall forthwith serve the same on the appellant along-with a notice requiring the appellant and the relevant adjudicating officer to appear before the Regional Director on a date to be specified in such notice (which date shall not be a date earlier than thirty days following the date of issuance of such notice) for hearing of the appeal.

(3) On the date fixed for hearing, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the persons concerned, the Regional Director may, subject to reasons to be recorded in writing, pass any order as he thinks fit including an order for adjournment of the hearing to a future date.

(4) In case the appellant or the adjudicating officer does not appear on the date fixed for hearing, the Regional Director may dispose of the appeal ex-parte:

Provided that where the appellant appears afterwards and satisfies the Regional Director that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance, the Regional Director may make an order setting aside the ex-parte order and restore the appeal.

(5) Every order passed under this rule shall be dated and signed by the Regional Director.

(6) A certified copy of every order passed by the Regional Director shall be communicated to the adjudicating officer and to the appellant forthwith and to the Central Government.
